FAIRFIELD COUNTY CLERK OF COURTS ANNUAL REPORT- FY2016

Historical Look at the Clerk's Office - In Ohio, the Clerk of the Common Pleas Court, which was established by State Constitution in 1802, serves the citizens, the legal community, and the Common Pleas Court. The office was created by the state's founders to be responsive to the public, mindful of the taxpayers, and independent of the court itself.

In 1851, under the State Constitution, the position became an elected position for a three year term and was extended to a four year term in 1936. William Henry Harrison, ninth President of the United States was the Hamilton County Clerk of Courts when he was elected President in 1840. The first Fairfield County Clerk of Common Pleas Court was Hugh Boyle who was appointed in 1803. The Clerk serves as the official record keeper of the court and acts as a safeguard and processor of all monies collected.

The Present - Today, Branden C. Meyer and his staff serves one of the fastest growing counties in the state. The office is committed to quality customer service, technological improvements for more efficient service and being fiscally responsible. The office has three locations to serve the public throughout the county; the legal offices are located in the Hall of Justice in downtown Lancaster and two title offices, one in Lancaster and one in Pickerington.

2016 BUDGET ANALYSIS

Clerk of Courts - Legal (General Fund)

Clerk of Courts - Title (Certificate of Title Fund)

The Clerk of Courts office takes seriously its responsibility to be faithful and committed custodians of public funds. The legal operation is funded by a General Fund appropriation and the title operation is funded by the Certificate of Title Administration (CTA) Fund. The CTA Fund (See O.R.C. 4505) is generated from title fees and not included in the General Fund budget. Due to a surplus in 2016 and in order to provide the County with a solid base for achieving future goals including the purchase and renovation of the County Records Center, Clerk Branden Meyer elected to transfer $1,000,000 from the Clerk of Courts' CTA Fund to the Fairfield County General Fund.
